

Communication for Science Camp

UGAS common course	1 Credit
Brief description <Objectives> Freshmen of the three constituent universities get together at one of the universities for the three-day camp. They will attend the lectures of a common research topic by professors, graduates and senior students of UGAS, give presentations of their research and have discussions in small groups to acquire communication skills. Students broaden their perspectives and develop their communication and presentation skills through the interaction with students from other universities. <Lecture outline> Two-nights/three-day camp program held at constituent university campus and other venues. (Host universities for academic year 2018, 2019 and 2020 are Yamagata University (Tsuruoka in Yamagata Prefecture), Iwate University (Morioka in Iwate Prefecture) and Hirosaki University (Hirosaki in Aomori Prefecture), respectively. Specific themes of lectures, workshops and field work, as well as detailed schedules and application procedures, will be announced later by UGAS website and e-mail. Students must write reports using forms downloaded from the UGAS Website and send these to the UGAS office by e-mail.
Grading Evaluation will be based on attendance, presentations, and reports, etc.
Special instruction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participants should attend the program for the whole period of time, including evenings. No partial attendance is allowed. • UGAS will pay travel expenses based on the regulation of the travel expenses for students. Students in host university who live in the same prefecture as the host university will be paid the accommodation fees only. If the students live in the other prefectures, UGAS will pay the accommodation fees and one way transportation fees calculated by a land route. The other students will get the accommodation and transportation fees calculated with UGAS regulation. • The meeting place and other necessary information will be provided later to participants.

The flow after the Communication for Science Camp Course

