(Abstract)

Iwate University tuition waiver program for doctoral course students

We will offer tuition waiver program for doctoral course students as mentioned above. Those who want to apply for this program need to submit the necessary form by March 1st, 2023 to the UGAS office or office in charge of academic affairs in your university.

If your request is granted, the tuition fee for the second semester will be reduced by half. (133,950yen)

An application form will be uploaded on the website of the UGAS on February 9th.

Who is eligible for this program?

Iwate University doctoral course students (except for MEXT and JICA scholarship students, Research assistant (RA) students, and JSPS fellow students, and those students who [will take/ are taking] a leave of absence).

As a general rule, people repeating the course cannot apply for this program. We take individual circumstances into consideration. Please contact the UGAS office.

Please contact your major advisor for more information.
