Iwate University Tuition Waiver Program for Doctoral Course Students

Iwate University offers a tuition waiver program for doctoral course students.

Students who wish to apply for this program must submit the necessary forms by March 9, 2026, to the UGAS Office or the office in charge of academic affairs at your constituent university.

If your application is approved, the tuition fee for the semester will be reduced by 50%.

Eligibility

This program is open to Iwate University doctoral course students, except for MEXT and JICA scholarship recipients, Research Assistant (RA) students, JSPS Fellows, and students who are on or plan to take a leave of absence.

As a general rule, students who are repeating a year are not eligible to apply.

However, individual circumstances may be considered.

If you believe your situation warrants special consideration, please contact the UGAS Office.

For further information, please contact your academic advisor.
